Street Angels	City Centre	Hull Street Angels Trinity is a charity run by volunteers. We support anyone who finds themselves vulnerable while using Hull city centre’s night time economy. Volunteer “angels” operate every Friday and Saturday night from circa 9pm to 3am and also on Bank Holidays and special events. Our trained volunteers give up their own time to ensure people feel safe whilst on a night out in Hull’s city centre by addressing any excess alcohol/drug taking incidences and to lessen the need for the emergency services to attend the scene. This takes many forms such as diffusing conflict, contacting parents, carers or relatives to collect people in difficulty, arranging for taxis to assist patrons in getting home safely and off the streets where they could fall victim to crime; administering basic first aid, re-hydration with bottles of water, providing flip-flops to prevent foot injuries and removing glasses and bottles from pavements that may cause harm or become potential weapons.	£9430	www.hullstreetangelstrinity.org.uk	October 2020 – September 2021
