

Dear , thank you for your request for information, please find our response below.

- Does the Chief Constable (and other Chief Police Officers in your force / constabulary ) have a contract with the Police and Crime Commissioner / Police Authority or equivalent?

The Police and Crime Commissioner appoints the Chief Constable and there is a contract in place.

- If yes – what specific contractual matters are detailed therein (for each chief officer)?

A copy of the application pack, which includes terms and conditions, is attached.

- If unwilling to identify the specific contractual terms therein, please provide details of the broad terms and conditions detailed therein for each chief officer (for example does the contract provide for private medical insurance / “golden hello” payments or other inducements)

N/A

- Details of any payments, reimbursements or allowances paid or made to each of your chief officers, other than those explicitly permitted in police regulations.

None.

In addition I would be obliged if you could provide details of any statutory authority that permits the Police and Crime Commissioner / Police Authority or equivalent to enter into any contracts as detailed in this request, with chief officers.

Section 38 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 requires the selection and appointment of Chief Constables to be made by Police and Crime Commissioners.

I hope you find this information helpful.
